

(Questions proposed to Mr. Wm. H. Eger)

10/14/26

Did you go home? If not, where did you go?

Did you go to Henry Stevens' home? If so, did he accompany you?

Do you remember the exact time that he reached his home?

How long a time did you spend in his company?

What did Mr. Stevens and you do while together after leaving the beach?

If you talked, what was the subject of discussion?

Do you remember anything about the Applegate blue fish incident?

What time did you leave Mr. Stevens?

Where did you leave him?

What was he doing at the time?

Did you go directly to your home?

What time did you reach your home?

Where was your home at this time and how long did it take you to get from Stevens home to your own?

How do you recall the day of the 14th of September 1922? Is there anything particular that fixes that time and the events of the evening in your memory?

How did Mr. Stevens appear that night? Was he at all excited, nervous, or quiet as usual?
